SOVIETS COOL
ON EUROPEAN
PUMP PRIMINGMOSCOW AID ASKED
IN SPENDING U. S.
DOLLARS

By TOM MILLERS
London, June 16. (AP) — Britain announced today she was seeking to enlist Russian participation in the aid-to-Europe project advanced by Secretary of State Marshall, but Moscow already appeared reluctant to cooperate in any continental-wide pump-priming effort financed in large part by U. S. dollars.

The British overtures, a foreign office spokesman said, will be made through Sir Maurice Peterson, British ambassador in Moscow.

The announcement came about the same time that the first Soviet reaction to Marshall's suggestions was published in Pravda, Communist party newspaper in Moscow. Pravda's commentary attacked the proposal as another case of "dollar diplomacy" and said it was an extension of President Truman's plan for "interference" in the internal affairs of other countries.

Criticism Discouraging

Foreign political observers in Moscow, after reading the Pravda reaction, said there was little hope of the Soviet union taking part. Foreign observers here, too, regarded the Pravda criticism as discouraging, but they said Russia's need for foreign trade, machinery and equipment which western powers could supply was a factor which might lead to a less chilly official reaction from the Kremlin.

Russian refusal to participate would mark a widening of the division between eastern and western Europe, it was agreed. But on the other hand, a Russian acceptance could be expected to be followed by other countries of eastern Europe and the prospects of economic collaboration throughout the continent would be the brightest since the end of the war.

France already has asked Russia if she is willing to discuss the plan with French leaders, but so far as was known no answer has been received. British-Russian consultations will be along the same "exploratory" lines as those Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin is undertaking in Paris tomorrow with French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault and Premier Paul Ramadier.

Quadruplets Still Living; Tiny Girl's
Health Precarious

Miles City, Mont., June 16. (AP) — The tiniest of the Randash quadruplets, one-pound, 12-ounce Donna Mae, began taking her first food from an eye-dropper today, but Dr. Elva Howard, who delivered the babies, said the girl was in a "very precarious" condition.

Two special nurses have been assigned to care for the quadruplets—the first in Montana's recorded history—born to Mrs. Edward Randash, 34-year-old Baker, Mont., beauty operator, Saturday morning.

Daisy Prentice, premature birth consultant from Helena, said the other two girls and boys were reported to be "holding their own." Mrs. Randash named the children today, after studying books on children's names. Besides Donna Mae, she picked Dorothy Hilda, Dolores Marie and Dean Miles.

Wreck Of Airliner
Analyzed; 12 Bodies
Buried In One Grave

Washington, June 16. (AP) — A terrifying picture of a Capital Airlines plane—in normal flying position, all control surfaces in place, power on—suddenly ramming a mountain in zero visibility emerged today from official investigations.

The pilot of the ship which crashed Friday night killing all 50 aboard was coming down from 3,000 feet to fly into Washington "under the weather," reported James M. Landis, chairman of the civil aeronautics board.

Disclosing these details of the preliminary investigation, Landis

CRASH OF B-29
TAKES 12 LIVESSalvage Crew Hunts For Clues In Disaster On Hawks Mountain

Springfield, Vt., June 16. (AP) — Investigators seeking an explanation for an Army air tragedy on Hawks mountain, where a B-29 plane crashed and exploded—with a tentative death list of 12—early Sunday, searched and re-searched the fire-desolated area today with a salvage crew.

The information gathered will ultimately be submitted to air force authorities for a finding.

The plane appeared lost, observers in his area reported, when it roared out of low-hanging rain-clouds, circled the area twice while flashing its lights, and then crashed in a sheet of flame high on fog-shrouded Hawks mountain.

As the investigation proceeded, Army officials sought—by checking and rechecking crew and passenger records—to establish precisely how many, and who, were aboard the big plane when it struck the mountain.

Meanwhile, at Tucson, Ariz., where the plane was based, Davis-Monthan Army air field authorities announced three of the dead had been identified.

Their names were given as Staff Sgt. John J. O'Toole and Staff Sgt. Oliver Hartwell of Davis-Monthan field and Pfc. R. M. Stewart of Westover field, Mass.

Six men believed to have been aboard the plane but whose bodies have not been definitely identified were listed as 1st Lieut. Robert Fessler, 2nd Lieut. Wilfred E. Gasset, 2nd Lieut. Oscar F. Fontana, Tech. Sgt. Paul H. Fetherhoff, Staff Sgt. Sylvester C. Michalak and Tech. Sgt. Clayton K. Knight, all of Davis-Monthan field.

Hometowns of the men were not immediately available, the field said.

State Democratic Leader Serves As Nuernberg Judge

Ann Arbor, Mich., June 16. (AP) — George J. Burke, widely known attorney and leader in state Democratic circles, will leave here Wednesday for Nuernberg, Germany, where he will serve as judge in major war criminal trials.

Burke will go direct to Washington where final arrangements will be made with the civil air division of the war department before his departure Saturday.

Currently a member of the Michigan Civil Service Commission, he was formerly general counsel to the Office of Price Administration in Washington.

Burke will be joined later by his wife and son.

Relief To Hungry
Goes Ahead Despite Communist Seizure

Washington, June 16. (AP) — Plans for American relief to Hungary are going ahead despite the Communist seizure of the government.

Richard F. Allen gave that word today as he was sworn in as administrator of the $350,000,000 relief program.

Allen said preliminary discussions are being held with Hungary and the other governments slated to share in the program, but that Hungary has "no urgent need for bread cereals as the harvest there is one of the earliest in Europe."

WALLACE HAS FORMULA FOR
WORLD PEACETRUMAN AND STALIN
BERLIN MEETING IS 'FIRST STEP'

By D. HAROLD OLIVER

Washington, June 16. (AP) — Henry A. Wallace called on President Truman tonight to invite Premier Stalin to meet with him in Berlin as a "first step" to guarantee world peace.

"We must be practical," said the chief critic of the Truman foreign policy. "The time has come to substitute a 'get practical' policy for the Dulles-Vandenberg 'get-tough' policy."

The former vice president and cabinet officer who is now editing the New Republic made his remarks in a speech at the government-owned Watergate amphitheatre. Efforts by the American anti-Communist Association to get a court order barring him from the amphitheatre failed.

New Party Predicted

In his 3,500 word address, Wallace declared "there will be a new party, even if it has no chance of election success in 1948," if both parties "insist on pursuing the present suicidal course toward war and depression." He did not say he would lead such a party. President Truman's "only possible chance for election is to make the Democratic party the party of peace," he said.

2—Urged, as another "first step" toward eventual disarmament, that the United States propose a "complete ban" on international traffic in weapons of war.

3—Suggested the administration and Democratic party lead a campaign to nationalize domestic munitions industries. "The people should own and control our armaments plant," he said.

4—Called on the president to exercise "vigilance" in behalf of what he called "positive" program on housing, health, educational, and other legislation.

Meeting Raises $8,000

Wallace appeared under the sponsorship of the Southern Conference for Human Welfare.

Nine thousand tickets had been sold from 60 cents to $3.60. The back of the tickets said the conference "condemns discrimination in all forms."

Sponsors of the program estimated the crowd at 10,500. Although tickets were priced at a top of $3.60, twenty-one minutes were devoted to raising funds for the Southern Conference for Human Welfare. Approximately $8,000 was raised in $10 to $50 contributions and it finally wound up with the ushers passing containers through the crowd for loose change.

Wallace was introduced by Senator Pepper (D-Fla.), who said:

"If an election could be held in the world today as to who was the world's foremost private citizen, as the spokesman of peace and democracy; if there were to be chosen one man in private life, who speaks to the world in the spirit of Franklin D. Roosevelt, it would be the American citizen I now proudly present to you, Henry A. Wallace."

The House committee on un-American activities, which called the conference a "Communist front organization," said in advance it planned to have "observers" at the scene. Wallace and Clark Foreman, conference president, welcomed them and denied

Father Of 10 Gets
4 Years In Prison
For Postal Thefts

Grand Rapids, Mich., June 16. (AP) — Fred R. Shuert, 39, father of ten children who pleaded guilty to embezzling $4,500 while temporary postmaster at Mulliken, today was sentenced by federal court to serve a four-year prison term.

Shuert disappeared March 10 and was arrested in a barn at his home a week ago.

Judge Raymond W. Starr also sentenced:

Milo A. Constadine, 10 years, after he pleaded guilty to transporting a stolen automobile and assaulting an officer in an attempted jail break at Marquette.

William Rykko, Grand Rapids, to pay a $3,600 fine on a charge of dealing in counterfeit sugar stamps. A six-month prison sentence was suspended.

Joe Upthegrove, Calvin Center, Cass county, fined $1,000, and Willis Mulder, Holland, $500, also for violating sugar rationing act. Three-month prison sentences for each were suspended.

Henry L. Staats and Joyce Nicholas of Cadillac ordered to make restitution of $1,700 collected on a false dependency allotment claim. Both pleaded guilty.

FIGHT RENEWED
AGAINST PASTORCrusading Minister Not
Wanted By Group
At Rose City

Rose City, Mich., June 16. (AP) — Led by their mayor and city council, a group of this community's 350 citizens irked by the resignation of the Rev. Cecil H. Scott to the Methodist church here renewed their fight against the pastor today.

The council took up the Scott issue as the first item of business at a meeting tonight and Mayor Norton King invited Ogemaw County Prosecutor Melvin E. Orr to attend.

The pastor's resignation by the Detroit Methodist conference Sunday also was discussed tonight at a meeting of the northern counties beer and liquor dealers association at Clear Lake.

King earlier had demanded the resignation of the crusading minister "for the good of Rose City."

A street fight between two housewives was reported during the day and witnesses said the Scott feud started it.

Rev. Scott's water supply from a well reportedly was turned off while he was attending the Methodist conference in Detroit last week.

Members of the Rose City Methodist church claimed they had to drive around a barricade of large trucks parked at the entrance Sunday to reach the edifice.

Santa Monica, Calif., June 16. (AP) — Jon Hall and Frances Langford escaped injury Sunday afternoon when their cabin plane was forced landing at Santa Monica municipal airport—apparently after being hit by a small caliber rifle bullet.

West Los Angeles Radio Officer C. W. Wood arrested a 14-year-old boy in an adjacent field and confiscated his rifle. He quoted the boy as saying he was shooting at rabbits.

Auto Tire Prices
Cut By Seiberling

Akron, O., June 16. (AP) — The Seiberling Rubber Co. of nearby Barberton today announced retail price cuts ranging from three to 18.5 percent on passenger car and truck tires and tubes.

J. L. Cochran, vice president in charge of sales, said the cuts were effective immediately and that the new retail schedule would bring prices of popular size tires and tubes below prewar figures. No specific prices for tires was announced other than the announcement of a general reduction.

Isle Royale Park
Tours Going Higher

Washington, June 16. (AP) — Touring the national parks is going to cost more this summer.

This was the word today from the National Park service which today released data on cost of meals and rooms at many of the parks and national monuments this year.

Typical was the case of Isle Royale National Park, Michigan. There at Rock Harbor Lodge rooms which rented for $4.25 per person in 1941, now are $7.05; meals are 50 cents higher than before the war.

SHIPPING TIED UP IN PORTS
BY SIT-DOWNCIO UNION SAYS NO
WORK

New York, June 16. (AP) — G.I.O. seamen tied up shipping at many of the nation's busy ports with an unprecedented sit-down today, and Assistant Secretary of Labor John W. Gibson arrived here from Washington seeking a "quick and immediate conclusion" to the stoppage.

Gibson, assigned to the dispute by Secretary of Labor Lewis B. Schwellenbach, hoped to meet both sides within a short time after his arrival by plane.

Joseph Curran, president of the National Maritime Union, largest of the five unions involved, declared almost 700 ships were tied up in the dispute labeled a "strike" by the operators and a "no contract, no work" stoppage by union leaders.

Curran said 500 of the affected ships were in east coast ports and predicted the national total would jump to 2,000 soon if negotiations with tanker companies were unsuccessful.

Frank J. Taylor, president of the American Merchant Marine Institute and chief negotiator for east and gulf coast operators, said reports indicated seamen were aboard the ships but idle. He insisted the stoppage was a "pure, simple, unadulterated strike."

Crews Stay Aboard

Just before Gibson's assignment was announced, two federal conciliators had said further mediation sessions between union and operator representatives here had been postponed indefinitely.

Curran's instructions, effective last midnight when the unions' contracts with shipowners expired, directed the seamen not to sign-on or sail vessels but he said "all crews should remain aboard as long as possible."

Union spokesmen said that if the men were put off the ships, operators would be blamed for a "lockout." Picketing is not to be conducted as long as the men are on the ships.

Taylor, however, declared this use of the term "lockout" was "entirely erroneous" and added that "negotiations having been carried on an agreement not having been reached, the union said, 'no contract, no work.'"

The old agreement could have been extended temporarily under its terms, he said.

At a mass meeting of 3,500 NMW members late today, Curran asserted the union had not made "any fantastic demands upon the shipowners" and added "we believe the shipowners are making more money today than ever before in their lives."

JEWIS WILL DIE
FOR TERRORISMBritish Sentence Three
In Jerusalem; Peace
Job Begun By U. N.

By CARTER L. DAVIDSON

Jerusalem, June 16. (AP) — A British military court sentenced three young Jews to death for terrorism today as the United Nations commission on Palestine began its task of finding a formula for bringing peace to the Holy Land.

The Jewish underground organization Irgun Zvai Leumi promptly appealed to the commission to intercede with the British on behalf of the condemned men.

The action of the military court and a peaceful general strike by 1,500,000 Arabs to underscore the commission on the Palestine Arab higher committee to boycott the 11-nation commission took the spotlight away from its opening session.

A plea for mercy for the three condemned men on behalf of their parents also was sent by Attorney Asher Levitsky to Lt. Gen. Gordon MacMillan, commander of British troops in Palestine. He must confirm the sentences before they are carried out.

The appeal from Irgun Leumi was handed just before 4 p. m. to Victor Hoo, secretary general of the U. N. special commission.

The court sentenced the three Jews to death and two other to life sentences on charges they took part in the daring prison break at Acre on May 4 in which 251 prisoners escaped and 16 persons were killed. All five were alleged Irgun members.

Grand Jury Inquiry
Proposed By Black
In Used Car Racket

Detroit, June 16. (AP) — State Attorney General Eugene F. Black said today that he "probably" will ask the state administrative board for funds for a grand jury investigation into the sale of new automobiles by used car dealers in "at least four Michigan counties."

The attorney general made the statement in addressing a meeting of state police chiefs at Traverse City. His inquiry so far, he asserted, convinced him a conspiracy exists on the part of some new and used car dealers to violate state licensing laws.

Black named Wayne (Detroit) and Genesee (Flint) counties as among those in which the inquiry would be sought. He declined to name the others.

Last week the attorney general said that with the cooperation of state police he had found 10 or 11 used car dealers in Detroit selling new cars, and announced plans to have them cited for a hearing on suspension of their licenses. They would be charged, he said, with selling new cars at far above list prices, although they were licensed only to deal in used vehicles.

The hearings, before Secretary of State Fred M. Alger, Jr., probably will be held in Lansing tomorrow, when both Black and Alger are expected to be at the capital city.

The controversy between the attorney general and the used car dealers undoubtedly will hinge upon a legal interpretation of what constitutes a "used" automobile. Many of the used car dealers have maintained that once an automobile has been licensed to an individual or corporation and so much as driven across the street it becomes a "used car."

Attorney General Black said today he had learned that a new car dealer in Detroit had sold five new cars in one day, using fictitious names for the buyers and that the cars showed up on a used car lot the next day.

COURT REFUSES
CURLEY APPEALProbation Chief Hope
Of Boston Mayor
In Mail Fraud

Washington, June 16. (AP) — The supreme court threw out an appeal by Mayor James M. Curley of Boston for the second time today, leaving probation or executive clemency as his chief hope for avoiding a jail sentence of six to 18 months for mail fraud.

Technically, Curley could apply to the high court again for reconsideration, but such petitions have been granted very rarely.

Petitions have been circulated in Boston and Massachusetts for probation for the 62-year-old political veteran. They may be presented soon to the district court here, where Curley was sentenced to jail and a $1,000 fine in connection with the operations of engineers' group, incorporated.

The government alleged that the concern realized about $60,000 by falsely representing that it could obtain war contracts for clients.

There also has been discussion of a plea to President Truman for clemency.

At Cohasset, Mass., hospital, where Curley is critically ill from high blood pressure brought on by hardening of the arteries, Dr. Edward Schott said the mayor was "visibly upset" when told by his family that his appeal had been rejected.

The doctor added that the mayor "made no comment. We did not discuss the case in detail."

Bill To Stimulate Army Recruiting Is Adopted By House

Washington, June 16. (AP) — A bill to extend indefinitely the Army's voluntary enlistment age of 17 years and otherwise stimulate recruiting was passed today by the House and sent to the senate for action.

The bill permits original enlistments for two, three, four, five or six years and reenlistments for terms up to six years. Non-commissioned officers could reenlist for unspecified terms and get a $50 bonus at the end of each year of their terms.

Under present law, the maximum enlistment period is three years.

SLASHES NOW
CALLED RISKY
BY PRESIDENTPAYMENT ON DEBTS
GIVEN PRECEDENCE
BY WHITE HOUSE

By WILLIAM R. SPEAR

Washington, June 16. (AP) — President Truman smashed the Republican income tax cut with a veto today.

He denounced it as "the wrong kind of tax reduction at wrong time."

He declared it "risky" and "unsafe" on the ground that "substantial" payments should be made on the debt in these good times.

And he left unanswered the question whether he will favor lowering taxes next year. It is "impossible to predict" when reductions can safely be made, he said.

No. 1 Campaign Issue

Around Republicans immediately got busy to try to override the veto in the House tomorrow. But they conceded that even if they should muster the necessary two-thirds majority there, they would have no chance in the Senate, which then would vote Wednesday. And House Democratic Leader McCormack (Mass.) predicted, after checking party ranks, that the veto will be sustained in the House.

So the $4,000,000,000 of income tax cuts ranging from 10.5 to 30 percent, which would have gone into effect July 1 now goes out the window.

And Bill No. 1 of the GOP-controlled Congress changes from a piece of legislation into a hot campaign issue for 1948.

Carroll Reece, Republican National chairman, quickly set the pitch with this comment:

"Mr. Truman has committed his administration to continued support of the 'tax and tax and spend and spend and elect' philosophy of the now discredited New Deal. That philosophy was repudiated by the American people last November, and I am confident it will be repudiated again and even more emphatically in 1948. The American people have determined that there will be no fifth term."

First In History
It was the first time in American history that a president has vetoed a bill to cut taxes, although President Roosevelt in 19' vetoed one to raise them.

Mr. Truman gave two main reasons why:

1. It would be bad for the country's economy and for the treasury.

2. It would give too much relief to those "in the high income brackets" and not enough "to the low income group."

The chief executive also gave his answer to arguments made for tax reduction:

1. "Despite many gloomy predictions, there is no convincing evidence that a recession is imminent." The Senate finance committee in its report on the bill had said it would be a hedge against a recession.

2. "There is no shortage of funds" for "necessary investment and business expansion" so a tax cut is not needed to release money for that purpose, as many writers have claimed.

SERVICE CLUBS HEAR CHAPLAIN

Rev. DeVries, Marquette Prison Official, Is Speaker Here

Rehabilitation of the paroled prisoner so that he may find a worthwhile role in life requires the cooperation of employers, businessmen and other leaders in community life. Rev. Arthur C. DeVries, chaplain and welfare director of the state branch prison at Marquette, told the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs in joint meeting yesterday noon at the Delta hotel.

"Rehabilitation Inside and Outside" was the subject of Rev. DeVries' talk. He was introduced by L. W. Olson of the Rotary club program committee.

Rev. DeVries denied that the parole program is a "failure," and that "eight of every ten" parolees are returned for new crimes or violations of paroles.

"Of a monthly case load of 113 there were only 15 who violated their terms, and of this number only seven were returned to prison for new crimes, according to figures supplied by Emery Jacques, parole officer," Rev. DeVries said.

Inside the prison, through treatment and care, an effort is made to rehabilitate the man so that he may be restored to his normal place in society, the prison chaplain explained. "When the prisoner is received his case is carefully studied and he is 'classified' as to what he can do and is given work and so placed that it is our hope that he will be useful and set in motion forces within himself that will bring about his rehabilitation," DeVries said.

Cumulation of the prisoner's good record is parole, when he is released under the supervision of parole officers who assist him in restoring himself to a place in life.

"It is then that the man needs the cooperation of those who can most help him—those who can give him employment and help him find the right place in the community," Rev. DeVries said. "It is necessary that employers

Two Men Injured In 4-Automobile Accident Sunday

Two persons sustained minor injuries and four automobiles were damaged in a weird accident in the 1300 block of Ludington street at 2:30 a. m. Sunday.

The four-car collision started when Jack Sprague, 1023 Fifth avenue south, made a U-turn on Ludington street in front of Tommy's Lunch. Sprague's car was struck by an automobile driven by Charles Peltier, 1515 Third avenue north. Peltier's car also swerved into a parked car owned by John St. Gaus, Rte. 1, Gladstone and Gaus' car, in turn, hit Peter Bayer, 1311 Stephenson avenue, as Bayer alighted from his automobile. Bayer's car also was slightly damaged in the mishap.

Bayer sustained an injured knee and head lacerations and Roy Carlson, a passenger in Peltier's car, sustained a nose injury.

All four cars involved in the accident were damaged. Your Phone and 693 will Buy.

AMPLE DUCK FOOD FOUND

State Game Biologist
Reports On Survey
At Gladstone

There appears to be an ample supply of natural food for ducks along the shore of Little Bay de Noc in the Gladstone area and no need at this time for additional plantings, according to Herb Miller, conservation department game biologist, following a survey made at the request of the Minnewascan Sportsmen's club of Gladstone.

Miller reported that he found seven good varieties of duck food all along the Gladstone shore. He added that much aquatic vegetation has not yet become visible and that August would have been a better time for the survey; and said that he had advised the club to make a further check before it spent any money for the purchase of duck food for planting.

"But I certainly want to compliment the Minnewascan club on its method of ascertaining the need or the lack of need for planting," Miller said.

"If the club wants to plant duck food, however, the department will help in locating and selecting planting stock locally so it will not have to be purchased. We know from a number of previous surveys that Portage Bay has a large amount of aquatic plants. To obtain the plants locally would cost more in effort but less in funds," Miller pointed out.

Miller emphasized the need for maintaining the local black duck breeding stock, and said that inland beaver ponds were important as breeding areas and "shooting holes." The large concentration of ducks in the Little Bay de Noc area early this spring was because ice conditions in inland lakes forced the ducks into open bay water, according to Miller and Howard Eldred, district game manager.

Nationally and throughout most of the state the duck population is down, and potential breeding stock must be kept if the ducks are to weather the "depression,"

Gladstone Youths To Pay Damages

Four Gladstone boys, Robert Stearns, Harry Belanger, Lowell Belanger and David Kutchen, pleaded guilty in justice court here yesterday to a disorderly conduct charge as a result of a disturbance created at Club 314 in Escanaba Friday night.

Each of the youths was ordered to make restitution in the amount of $25.55 for damages resulting from the altercation and was ordered to pay court costs of $8.25 each. The boys were given until Saturday to pay the damages and court costs or serve 30 days in the county jail.

Bishop Page Speaks At Kenyon College

More than $900,000 in gifts, bequests, and legacies has come to Kenyon College in the past year, Robert B. Brown, secretary of the college, announces. This is more than double the amount ever received by the college in any one year, he said. About $400,000 of the amount received is the result of Kenyon development program solicitation to date.

The chief speaker at the alumni luncheon was the Rt. Rev. Herman R. Page, D.D., Bishop of Northern Michigan, who told the group that church colleges must take the lead in solving "America's crisis, which is a crisis of the spirit." He made a strong appeal to the alumni to support the Kenyon development program's plans for strengthening and improving Kenyon so that it might better continue to be "a bulwark in the citadel of true education."

Poland Will Ship Coal To Sweden

Warsaw, (P)—Poland plans to ship 1,000,000 tons of coal through the port of Szczecin (Stettin) to Sweden this year, the newspaper Zycie Warszawy reported. An additional 50,000 tons of potassium salt is scheduled to pass through the same port to Belgium.

Miller said. Miller will be in the Upper Peninsula for two weeks in a survey of waterfowl development projects.

AGED NIAGARA RESIDENT DIES

Exor Noel, Are 101, Was
Uncle Of Henry
Lantagne

Exor Noel, 101, of Niagara, widely-known as the oldest resident of Marinette county and the second oldest resident of Wisconsin, died at 3:30 Thursday afternoon at the residence after an illness of the last two and one-half months.

He was born Aug. 26, 1845, in Quebec, Canada, and came to the States as a young man to work on a railroad construction job in Vermont. The project completed, he left to work in Chicago, only to find a large part of the city laid waste by the famous Chicago fire.

"I went there to find work, and instead found a bleak, cold wind still whipping the ashes of large buildings along the river front," Mr. Noel later told friends in recalling the experiences of his youth.

Unable to find work in the stricken city, Mr. Noel left for Menominee, making the trip by boat in a blinding snow storm. The lake was beginning to freeze and several times the boat was in danger of overturning.

Works In Camp

Arriving in Menominee, Mr. Noel obtained work in the lumber camps and often recalled working on a farm which produced during one summer, more than 3,000 bushels of potatoes to feed the hungry lumberjacks, who were busy felling timber.

He worked on the farm until the summer of 1872, when with money he had saved, he purchased a team of horses and went to Michigan, where he hired out to work with his team, on the railroad then being constructed between Champion and L'Anse.

Taken ill in Michigan, Mr. Noel returned to Menominee and a short time later, was joined by his widowed sister, who went with him to Nadeau. There Mr. Noel made his living off a farm until 1899, when he went to work logging for the Pittsburgh company. He took part in the early-day drives on the Ford river.

In 1901, accompanied by his sister and the latter's three sons, Mr. Noel moved to Niagara, where he has since maintained his residence.

Drove Stage Coach

The oldest of Niagara's residents recall Mr. Noel in the early days when he met all trains in Quinnesec, Iron Mountain and Anderson Spur with his stage coach. Later, when the automobile replaced the horse-drawn vehicles, Mr. Noel went out of business. He kept his horses, however, and for several years was called upon, from time to time to drive parties who wanted a touch of "the good old days."

Mr. Noel had lived through four wars and what he termed "a few scraps on the side." He was a boy of 16 in Canada when he heard that the northern and southern states in America were at war. He was in the States during the short-lived Spanish-American war. He had relatives in service in both the World wars.

Mr. Noel was in Escanaba last August when he observed his one hundred and first anniversary. He later returned home and became ill during the early spring.

Mr. Noel, who had never married leaves a stepbrother, Joseph Noel, in Windsor Mills, Canada, and a nephew, Henry Lantagne of Escanaba.

Public Service by Press

THE destruction of America's surplus potatoes in 1947, a year in which millions of people abroad are crying out with hunger, has been the subject of extensive comment in the American press. Needless to say, it also has been the subject of considerable comment in the Communist press all over the world, the Communists cleverly using the potato dumping incidents in a propaganda campaign in which they are attempting to show that Americans are calloused to the hunger plight of other peoples.

The record of the American people and the United States government in the world's famine problem speaks for itself. We have poured billions of dollars into the fund to feed the hungry peoples of the world and have exported huge quantities of our food stocks. We are committed to a program to continue to do so within our means in the months ahead. We are proud of that record, even if we are not proud of the fact that we have destroyed millions of bushels of surplus potatoes here at home.

In a recent issue, Business Week magazine condemned the American press for having published pictures of surplus potatoes being destroyed by our government. Business Week condemned the publication of those pictures because it provided fodder for the Communist propaganda mill.

As we have pointed out, the American people are not proud of the potato dumping program. In truth, the American people are proud of it.

The American free press, however, never has and never will weigh its news material on a scale that measures whether such material is good or bad for the Communist party line. It is incredible that Business Week fails to understand this.

The potato dumping system is wrong, but the only way it can ever be corrected is to give the American people all of the facts. That is what the American press has done in this instance. In doing so, the newspapers performed a distinct public service. That the American people were given the facts on potato dumping is far more important than the usage that the Communist propaganda machine gave to the information.

The shipment of our surplus potatoes abroad was rejected months ago by UNRRA as "impracticable." The relief agency said that the shipping space might better be used for more nutritional foods, and that the cost of shipping dehydrated potatoes would be many times the cost of sending other foods of equal caloric value.

We are stuck with the potato subsidy program for another year. The price support program which created the potato surplus in 1947 will not expire until Dec. 31, 1948. It probably means another big potato surplus next year and perhaps more dumping. If the program is abandoned at the end of that time, as it properly should be, it will be because the American press brought the facts to the American people.

The job of the newspapers is to lay the information on the line for all to see. It is important that the job be done, whether the information is palatable or not.

Mrs. Peron on Tour

EVA DUARTE PERON, wife of Argentina's strong man, is on a tour of Europe and it is not surprising that she was given a gala state-sponsored reception in Spain, ruled by another strong man, Francisco Franco.

Although Spain, like much of Europe, has a vast hunger problem, the Spanish government spent $2,000,000 to $4,000,000 to let Mrs. Peron know that she was a welcome visitor to Spain. Franco and his guest, Mrs. Peron, were profuse in their mutual praise of the Spanish and Argentine dictatorships.

Mrs. Peron also will visit London, Paris and Rome in her European tour. Neither the British nor French governments, however, consider her an official guest. In Rome, where fascism was born, the Italian officials are planning state functions for the wife of the Argentine strong man.

The Argentine government has classified Mrs. Peron's tour of Europe as a personal matter, but her trip is showing rather definitely where the fascist sympathies are in Europe.

Tell It To The Russians

HENRY Wallace has made many ridiculous statements since he embarked on his crusade to change American foreign policy, but his statement at a news conference in Washington Sunday that the Russian government should be warned that Soviet expansion into Turkey would bring the United States and Britain into war against Russia should go to the head of the list.

Wallace, as usual, talked double-talk. First of all, still professing faith in the Russians, Wallace said that he sees no evidence that Russia threatens to invade Turkey with troops. But, he added, if Russia did so, the United States and Britain

"would fight" to repel the Soviet troops. If the Russian government is hell-bent on a program of world expansion, she knows the consequence of such a program. Hitler tried it and failed.

The danger to world peace is not that the United States may neglect to inform Russia just exactly how far the Reds may safely go in swallowing smaller nations. The danger is that Russia would jeopardize world peace by continuing a program of expansion.

Russia, of course, is after the rich oil fields of Saudi Arabia. The United States wants access to those oil fields, too, as does Great Britain and most of the other nations of the world. The middle east oil fields can and should be made available to all countries. If Russia tries to get them by force for her exclusive use, there can be no doubt that she will be inviting war. The Russians already know that and need not be prompted by an official communiqué from the United States government, as Wallace suggests.

It would be better if Wallace would direct his remarks to Russia and not to the United States.

Study of Air Safety

SPURRED by the disastrous airplane crashes of recent weeks, President Truman has appointed a five-man board of experts to carefully study the airplane safety problem and to make recommendations for improving safety conditions.

Headed by Chairman James Landis of the civil aeronautics board, the president's appointments include representatives of the air lines and of the pilots' associations, as well as aviation research organizations.

There can be no doubt that the recent air tragedies—three crashes of transport planes have killed 146 persons within three weeks—have shaken public confidence in our air transportation system.

The newly-created board has an extremely important task to do. It has been promised generous cooperation of all government agencies and private agencies as well in its endeavors to gain all of the facts from which to base its recommendations for improving air safety. It must learn the causes of air weeks, the mechanical and human factors involved, study new equipment that is designed to improve air safety.

The success of the board's undertaking may determine how rapidly or how slowly the American air transportation system will develop. The expansion of that system has been rapid since the end of the war, but the tragedies of recent weeks in certified domestic air carriers have indicated that perhaps the expansion has been more rapid than the air safety factor warrants.

THE SEC AND TUCKER

(Chicago Daily News)

The tough attitude of the Securities and Exchange Commission toward the Tucker Corp.'s proposed $20 million stock issue appears to be that of a boy who has had his fingers heated.

The polite and rapid attention which the SEC gave the Kaiser-Frazer Corp. under similar circumstances had some embarrassing repercussions. Several state security divisions, less enamored of Henry Kaiser than the national administration, were more critical of the issue. No doubt these state officials consider their stand justified by the subsequent market in the stock.

We can see no justification for the charge that the SEC's present position is blocking the development of an industry. Preston Tucker, promoter of the new motor company, expresses confidence that his amended statement will answer the questions raised by the SEC. The principle that a prospectus must disclose all pertinent information about the promotion is sound. That is the extent of the SEC's authority.

Successful development of the Tucker enterprise would be extremely gratifying to Chicago. In view of Mr. Tucker's confidence that the SEC requirements can easily be met, we conclude that the result of the present difficulty will be fuller public understanding of the risks and hence sounder financing.

WORDS TO WATCH

The word tassel should not rhyme with "fossil." The spelling "tassel" was once used almost as frequently as "tassel," and "tassel" was pronounced to rhyme with "fossil." But both the spelling and pronunciation "tassel" are now obsolete. Spell it "tassel" and pronounce it: TASS-ul.

Watch the word partner; note that it is spelled with "u" and not "d." Be sure to say: PART-ner.

Incidentally, it may help us to write and sound the "i" in partner if we will remember that pard is a word which means "leopard." "Pardner," therefore, is a nonsensical word. Better avoid it.

The word disastrous has three syllables only. Not "di-ZASS-ter-uss." Note that the third syllable is -trous. Be sure to say: di-ZASS-truss.

Hindrance is another word in which an extra syllable is often heard, as, "HIN-dern-uss." Hindrance is a two-syllable word, the older spelling "hinderance" now being obsolete. Better say: HIN-dr-uss.

Our next word usually loses a syllable instead of gaining one. Authoritatively is telephoned thus: "aw-THAWR-i-tiv-lee." But the "ta" syllable should not only be pronounced, it should also receive a sec-

World Events Analyzed

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

Washington.—One commodity that cannot be bought with all the dollars in the world is time. And time is running out very fast.

Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg, who as much as any single individual has carried the load of our present foreign policy, says we need an inventory of our resources. We need to determine what we can do toward restoring peace and security to a broken world. It is impossible, as Vandenberg points out, to deal with a series of "unanticipated crises, one by one."

At the same time, however, we must examine without fear or prejudice the nature of the crisis which is coming on with such a rush. We must try to understand the speed with which events are crowding in. If we are to have an inventory, then we must move quickly. The facts and figures are available both as to resources and money. The task is to put them together with skill and perception so that we can see at a glance what we can do.

—Special Session?—

There has been talk of a special session of congress in the fall. So far this seems to be chiefly newspaper talk. When you put it up to party leaders in House and Senate they look vague and reply that no one has discussed with them the necessity of such a session.

Let's assume that there will be a session about Nov. 1. The president and Secretary of State Marshall put before the lawmakers the imperative need for a five-year program, at $5,000,000,000 a year, to restore Europe. Let's suppose some more and suppose that congress acts with a minimum of delay, adopting the administration program and sending it to the White House on Dec. 15 (admittedly, this is getting into the realm of fantasy.)

Even with this express-train speed—measured by government standards—we shall be perilously close to a deadline. The dollars will run out in Great Britain and in Western Europe shortly after the first of the year. That means shipments from this country will be greatly curtailed. Far more important, it means that the whole effort of rehabilitation will, for the moment at least, come to a standstill.

This will take place after six months of uncertainty. If France and Italy still survive as free nations, it will be by a close margin. In the next six months the Communists throughout Europe, acting under leaders trained in Moscow, will exploit every opportunity for sabotage and disruption. And the opportunities will be manifold.

Our tempo, is, to use a charitable word, leisurely. President Truman's message calling for $400,000,000 for Greece and Turkey was delivered on March 12. Three months were required to approve the program and name an administrator—and this for a program so small in comparison to needs.

—GRISWOLD IN CHARGE—

The newly named administrator, former Gov. Dwight Griswold of Nebraska, is now in Washington. He had to be called off from a responsible job in the civil administration of Germany to take this post.

Griswold, who has never been in Greece is in Washington getting "briefed" on his extremely difficult and complicated assignment. He is picking the immediate assistants who will accompany him.

The first pair of shoes and the first sack of wheat are still to reach Greece under the program. The same thing is true of the general relief provided in the $350,000,000 appropriation adopted by Congress. The timetable for the latter measure was even more prolonged. The machinery for providing the relief is only just now being set up.

If Congress acted on an over-all program for Europe by Dec. 15, many weeks would go by before it could be implemented. A major obstacle is in persuading able men to take responsible positions, as proved again on the Greek-Turkish program.

There may not be time enough. That is the reality which no one is quite facing up to. We have already squandered so much of that commodity without price. We helped along the squandering process by such senseless acts as abruptly chopping off the lend-lease pipeline the moment the shooting war had ended.

In his statement, Vandenberg spoke of the need for the "prompt creation" of a bipartisan council to advise the president on a master plan for rehabilitation. He spoke of the "difficult national decisions which we inescapably confront." We cannot delay those decisions much longer. The hands of the clock are moving on toward midnight of the brief day that is left to us.

ondary accent, thus: aw-THAWR-i-TAY-tiv-lee.

Overheard on a bus: "The trouble with her is she's got an artistic temp-munt." The word temperament, of course, has four syllables; and so has the word temperature. Careful speakers will want to say: TEM-per-uh-munt; TEM-per-uh-cher.

I was asked to settle a heated argument recently regarding the "correct" pronunciation of the word gimpe, one side insisting on "gamp," the other holding out for "gimp" (hard "g").

The word gimpe is French, in which language it is pronounced with a flat "a" followed by the nasal sound, thus: ga(n)p. The pronunciation "gamp" has dictionary sanction in English usage, but it is seldom heard, for the English-speaking person simply cannot reconcile "gamp" for gimpe.

For this reason the spelling "gimpe" has become obsolete. In English the word is spelled and pronounced: gimp.

A STATE PARK —The outstanding natural attractions of the Garden Peninsula country as a state park site is again recognized by the Michigan department of conservation, although there is no state park there and perhaps there never will be. You will recall that efforts of Delta county persons to have the state acquire Fayette on the Garden Peninsula as a state park failed when the area was sold to Miss Gladys

Dunathan

Edwards of Detroit. The conservation department recognizes the Garden Peninsula country as outstanding in its choice of that area for an overnight and all-day stop there for 30 Michigan school teachers who will tour the Upper Peninsula in late July and early August. The trip will take two full weeks and will cover 1,200 miles of Upper Peninsula highways and back roads.

TEACHER TRAINING —Teachers accepted for the field trip are those who are engaged in teaching some phase of conservation or who plan to do so. For two weeks the teachers will become students, and there will be reviews and discussions of each day's activities around the camp fire in the evening.

Where will they go in the Upper Peninsula on that two week trip? They will see every outstanding scenic and recreational spot above the Straits, and in addition will visit iron and copper mines, inspect forest utilization and wildlife experimental stations. The last day will be spent at Higgins Lake in Lower Michigan where there will be discussion, evaluation, and compilation of material for use in the classroom.

ONE DAY IN DELTA —After staying overnight at Crystal Falls the group of teachers will come to Escanaba and then go to the Big Spring near Manistique. Returning from there the same day they will go to Fayette on the Garden Peninsula for an overnight camp.

In Michigan Conservation magazine in a story of the tour Fayette is described as "a beautiful harbor where the first blast furnace to be erected in Michigan still stands."

"The entire day, August 8, will be spent on the Garden Peninsula with visits to the 200-foot limestone bluffs on Lake Michigan, the old mill town of Garden, and the commercial fishing village of Fairport."

NATURAL SELECTION —The conservation department's selection of the Garden Peninsula country as an outstanding point of attraction for the visiting teachers is not without significance. From the standpoint of scenic, historical and geological interest it rivals the better-known areas of the Upper Peninsula. For the botanist and the biologist it affords diversified opportunity for study, and it is located in a section designated as a game area by the state.

The decision to spend a night and a day in the Garden Peninsula country indicates the interest the conservation department finds there, and lends to continued speculation on the possibility that sometime in the future the state may be persuaded to establish a park somewhere on that Peninsula.

INTO THE PAST

Ten Years Ago

Detroit.—Three and one half tons of dead elephants offered grim evidence today of the fate that befalls pachyderms who yield to a weakness for their keepers' shoes. A week ago yesterday, Eva (that was the elephant's name) ate the shoes that Joe Seastian, her keeper, had removed while he took a nap. Indigestion set in and became more and more acute until she died during the early morning hours today.

Beautiful and impressive services were held Sunday morning at St. Joseph's church for the first mass of Rev. Fr. Thomas Bloomstrom, O. F. M., of this city, who was ordained as a member of the Order of Franciscan Missionaries on June 9.

A short talk on the work of the conservation department by A. L. McNeil, department headquarters clerk, will be the feature of this evening's meeting of Troop 55 at the Bethany Lutheran church.

Twenty Years Ago
Geneva.—An Anglo-Soviet break the assassination of the Soviet envoy to Poland and the southern Europe impasse involving Yugoslavia and Albania are factors in a situation causing undisguised concern to statesmen attending the League of Nations council meeting.

Rapid City, S. D.—The summer White House was set up by President Coolidge tonight in a mountainous country flanking the great farming regions of the northwest.

Escanaba's steady growth in population is reflected in the school enrollment figures, made public yesterday by R. E. Cheney, superintendent of schools.

A tonsillectomy clinic was held at St. Francis hospital Wednesday when 19 children, pupils of the seven grade schools of the city submitted to operations for the removal of tonsils.

MANY SITES.—There are many sites on the Garden Peninsula the conservation department might consider recommending to its commission and to the legislature for acquisition for park purposes.

The site in which the state seemed most interested, and which had been recommended by the Delta county board of supervisors, the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce, the Lake Michigan Yachting Association and other bodies and organizations, was Fayette. The little deep-water harbor backed by high limestone bluffs and the adjacent sandy beach area were visited, surveyed and viewed by parks and recreation division officials. They all spoke in praise of the site.

But because of delays, principally over the question of financing its purchase and development, the owner sold Fayette to Miss Edwards of Detroit, who proposed to turn it into a private resort.

Fayette is, however, only one of many possible state park sites on the Garden Peninsula. The conservation department has had its surveyors inspect the whole area and their reports are on file in Lansing.

TO THE FUTURE.—When the conservation department brings the field-trip teachers to Delta county they will stay overnight at Fayette—on private property. They will be welcome, of course. Just as the public has been welcome to use Fayette for recrea-

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON

Washington.—When it comes to taxes, the big-business lobby never changes. A peek behind-the-scenes with the House Ways and Means Committee shows that the same group of wire-pullers who have tried to mould taxes in the past are more in the saddle than ever today.

Here is how they operate: three years ago, Randolph Paul, then counsel of the Treasury Department was asked to meet with five men described to him as "controlling the tax policy of the United States." When he sat down with them, he found that these five were:

1. Wall Street Banker John W. Hanes, chief owner of the Martin Aviation Co., investor in various big tobacco companies, and the largest orchid-grower in the world.

2. J. Cheever Cowdin, head of the National Association of Manufacturers' Tax Committee, chairman of Universal Pictures and Trans World Airlines; director of Curtiss-Wright, Douglas Aircraft, Sperry Gyroscope, Ford Instrument Co., Waterbury Tool and half a dozen others.

3. Ellsworth Alvord, tax lobbyist for the U. S. Chamber of Commerce and former tax lawyer for Andrew W. Mellon.

4. Lewis Brown of the Johns-Manville Co.

5. Roswell Magill, Wall Street tax lawyer.

This is the little group which described themselves as "controlling U. S. Tax Policy." And while they had little luck with Randolph Paul today they have finally come into their own. It has recently been discovered that Republican Chairman Knutson of the House Ways and Means Committee has now actually appointed three of the above—Cheever Cowdin, John Hanes and Roswell Magill—as a tax committee to advise Congress on how to write the tax law.

In other words, Mr. Cowdin, a multimillionaire and Mr. Hanes, another multimillionaire, together with Mr. Magill, an attorney for several millionaires, now are given the official right to help fix the nation's taxes.

—UNHAPPY CHANDLER—

Baseball Commissioner Happy Chandler, once a versatile senate debater, has been on a lot of hot spots in his day. But it took the 9-year-old son of Broadway Columnist Leonard Lyons to put him on another.

Having heard that Leonard Lyons' two sons were up in arms over the suspension of Brooklyn Dodgers' Manager Leo Durocher, Happy sent the two boys a note which read:

"It grieves me to know that you do not approve of my action in suspending Leo Durocher. But I am sure that if you were familiar with all the facts, you would agree that my action was in the interest of baseball. I have no other interest except to preserve the integrity of our national pastime."

To which George Lyons wrote back:

"Poppa was right in telling you that we don't think you did right in suspending Leo Durocher. Poppa explained to us the part of your letter where you said 'I am sure that if you were familiar with all the facts that you would agree that my action was in the interest of baseball.'"

"I am 9 1/2 years old. My brother Warren is 7. We play baseball and follow all the scores. We sometimes see games and root for Joe Damaggio and for the Dodgers. So according to how poppa explained what you said, I think we are the interest of baseball and the future of baseball. So could you please send us a few facts that maybe would tell us why you were right in suspending Leo Durocher."

"Maybe you should have punished him only with a money fine. We don't know the facts unless you give us some."

The Lyons boys have not yet received a reply from Happy Chandler.

—MINE SAFETY LAGS—

John L. Lewis, who has tried to swing the miners to the Republican party during every election since 1936, now faces an interesting situation at the hands of his Republican friends. The question is: Will the Republicans give him the mine-safety bill he has been demanding?

For a good many years, Lewis has been trying to pass an adequate mine-safety bill—without success.

Real fact is that most of the mine operators don't want Federal inspection of their mines, or a really airtight mine-safety bill.

At this Congressional session, however, definite action was hoped for.

Three mine-safety bills have been introduced: two by Republican Congressman Gerald Landis of Indiana, a former coal miner; one by Democratic Senator Harley Kilgore of West Virginia, long known as the miners' best friend in Congress. As a reward for his friendship, however, Kilgore was vigorously opposed by Lewis at the last election.

When the two Landis bills came before Republican Congressman Max Schwabe of Missouri, chairman of a labor subcommittee, however, he decided to consult Speaker Joe Martin and GOP Leader Charles Halleck of Indiana. They hesitated. The coal operators' lobby is strong, and one of their arguments, incidentally, is that used by the Democrats—interference in states rights.

So despite the public outcry during the Centralia tragedy, it doesn't look likely that a mine-safety bill will be passed by the House.

In the Senate, there is a better chance. Senators Dvorshak of Idaho and Cordon of Oregon, Republicans, both indicate support for Kilgore's mine-safety bill.

You can't blame some men for getting tired of their wives, generally sneaking.

Escanabans Observe Flag Day; Principal Address By O'Hara

Escanabans observed the nation's flag day Sunday with a parade and appropriate program at the Elks temple on Ludington street, under the sponsorship of the Escanaba lodge 354, BPOE.

Michael J. O'Hara, Menominee attorney, gave a stirring and timely address. After the flag raising ceremony and singing of the Star Spangled Banner by the crowd, the Rev. James G. Ward gave the invocation and an address of welcome was made by Marvin L. Coon, mayor of Escanaba.

The program closed with the singing of God Bless America. The parade started at the junior high school and ended at the temple. Units were the city band, massed colors and standards of the American Legion, VFW, DAV, Elks and Eagles lodges, mayor and council, disabled veterans in automobiles, Campfire Girls, Cub Scouts and Army recruiting vehicles.

Fathers And Sons Dine Together At Local Lions Club

James Ward, Daily Press sports writer, outlined some of the experiences of his newspaper career and some of his experiences as an Army officer in the recent war at the annual father and son banquet of the Escanaba Lions club last night at the Sherman hotel.

Ward related an experience at a prison break in Marquette in 1939 and also described a series of interesting incidents in the Far East during the war. In conclusion the speaker urged the maintenance of close, personal relationship between fathers and their sons.

Wallace Watt, of the Michigan Children's Institute, also spoke briefly at the meeting and reminded the Lions and their sons that there are thousands of boys in this state who either have no father or are being woefully neglected by their parents.

Richard Oslund, youthful Escanaba magician, presented a series of magic acts to conclude the program.

Christophers Speaker Explains Movement In Address At Escanaba

A spokesman for the Christopher movement, Miss Elizabeth McGuire of New York, last night delivered an address explaining the purpose and philosophy of the lay movement of Christian Americans.

Advocating a philosophy of brotherly love based on the teachings of Jesus Christ, Miss McGuire urged every thinking American to get into the four major fields of thinking and doing in American life. As individuals she asked them to work to spread the gospel of love to counteract the hatred philosophy of Communism and the other isms rampant in a war-torn world.

The four key places are government, education, labor and the field of communications. At present too many active members in these departments are anti-American in their thinking and represent subversive elements, both in respect to Christianity and democracy.

Race is pitted against race, games, Boudreau was hitting at a .350 pace—a drop of six points from the last mark that gave him a tie with Joe Di Maggio of New York for the lead last week. During this week, however, Di Maggio had slipped 23 points to fifth place.

Sprinkles Your Lawn

... While You Are Gone!

Forget It...

Just make the simple attachments, direct its course, and enjoy your leisure — while Trav-el-awn works.

Turns Corners Itself

It will "walk" the length of your home. Merely set hose on course you want—straight or around the corners. Trav-el-awn will follow.

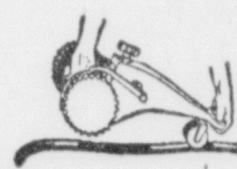

Choose Your Rain...

Water-matic nozzle readily adjusts to any "rainfall" you want... from a mist to a heavy shower.

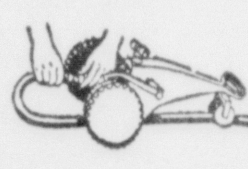

Sprinkles as It R-O-L-L-S Along the Hose
Then Shuts Itself Off--Automatically!

The ancients would have called it the eighth wonder of the world. We call it TRAV-EL-AWN—the jet-propelled automatic water sprinkler. It walks! Using the hose as a track it actually "walks" across the lawn at a pace of 20 to 30 feet per hour... adjust it to the desired speed. No motive power other than the water itself. It sprinkles evenly and its spray may be adjusted from "rainfall" velocity to a gentle sprinkle. Walks in a straight line or turns the corners... you set its route. And when sprinkling's done TRAV-EL-AWN shuts off automatically. Just put TRAV-EL-AWN to work for you... and forget it! Come, see this marvelous sprinkler this morning... and enjoy your lawn-spraying leisure this evening.

HOW THE ROLL-ALONG Trav-el-awn WORKS—

1. Set TRAV-EL-AWN over the hose with front wheel riding on it. TRAV-EL-AWN will follow the hose course you set.

2. Connect hose to TRAV-EL-AWN. It requires but a moment.

3. Fasten sprinkler arms to tee with tips tilted at upward angle. Degree of angle determines the widths of the area sprayed.

4. Your TRAV-EL-AWN is set for normal speed. For higher speed merely remove bolts and set pawls in upper holes.

5. Place valve trip-stop over hose at point where TRAV-EL-AWN is to stop and it will shut off automatically.

Miss Katherine Brandso, Edward McLaughlin Wed

Apple blossoms of pale pink and white, and tulips, peonies and snapdragons were arranged with the lighted candles on the altar of Immanuel Lutheran church for the wedding, Saturday, June 14, of Katherine L. Brandso, daughter of Mrs. Ludwig Brandso, of 1004 Tenth avenue south, and Edward A. McLaughlin, of Robbinsdale, Minnesota, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McLaughlin.

The four o'clock service was read by Rev. L. R. Lund.

Don't Make Tracks In Newly-Cut Hay

Madison, Wis.—Make hay while the sun shines, but don't make tracks in it by driving or walking over freshly mown hay is the latest advice to farmers.

If you walk or drive over the freshly mown hay, Prof. H. D. Bruhn of the University of Wisconsin agricultural engineering department explains, it creates dense areas of moisture, because freshly cut hay has about 80 per cent moisture content.

Dense areas prevent air from circulating through the hay. If the air doesn't circulate in the fresh hay, it spoils.

Accidents have jumped to fourth place as a cause of death.

town is a chance to speak a piece at the committee's coming hearings at Washington. Scripts now being prepared for the affair indicate it should be colossal. Approximately 50 top Hollywood names will make the exclusive subpoena list. The competition to get on the list is intense.

The word is that it's still a wide open race. They're saying that you can't rule out even such names as Margaret O'Brien, Betty Grable, Bebe Daniels or the Marx Brothers.

Big Red Tide
Within the motion picture industry, Communism is now being hailed as the slickest publicity gimmick since the discovery of the sloop. Everybody gets into the act—writers, cameramen, script-turners, as well as actors and studios. Since Robert Taylor made headlines all over the country recently by claiming he was forced by the White House to appear in a pro-Russian propaganda film, there has been a rush to climb aboard the red bandwagon.

And not just me,—the Department of Agriculture says, "DDT is the perfect answer for bedbugs".... and PESTMASTER gives you the type DDT most effective against these pests—a deodorized spray for mattress and springs—remains deadly to bugs weeks after you apply it. Ask your dealer—he has the right type PESTMASTER DDT—powder or spray—for every use. But make sure by saying "PESTMASTER."

PESTMASTER
It's approved DDT Strengths

The trick is to either accuse somebody of being a red sympathizer or issue a press release denying you are one.

Ingenious press agents are turning up new angles every day. One studio claimed a movie slated to be called "The House With the Red Roof" had been changed to "The House With the Leaky Roof."

Among the many persons in Hollywood who take the question of communist infiltration seriously, however, there is general agreement on two main points: No pro-Russian propaganda is getting into the motion pictures. And loyalty to the Marxist doctrine is always second to the job of making money, regardless of how indoctrinated a person might be with the party line.

Howard Emmett Rogers, noted film writer and for many years an executive with Metro-Goldwyn-

Mayer, long has been one of the leaders of the fight against leftist influence in Hollywood. He has worked with the Un-American Activities Committee to help round up evidence. He says that no red propaganda gets in films. "Communist propaganda is the dullest stuff in the world. No writer would dare put it in a film story on that ground alone. And even if a writer did try to get it in, someplace, movie scripts get changed so much after they leave the writer's hands, the chances of it ever getting out in a finished movie are negligible," Rogers claims.

Rogers contends, however, that the Hollywood Communists work for the party by contributing large sums of money and by writing propaganda pamphlets. He says the real brains behind the party's U.S. propaganda activities are in the film capital. He charges that the nucleus of red activities is the Screen Writers' Guild.

Emmet Lavery, president of the Screen Writers' Guild (and author of "The Magnificent Yankee," among other plays and movies), admits there might be "a few Marxists in our midst."

"Our main efforts, however, are always to improve the standing of writers, especially the financial standing. Our activity is a highly capitalistic maneuver designed to take a little more capital from one group of capitalists—producers, publishers, radio chains, television—and put it in the pockets of another group of capitalists, the writers," he says in defense.

"A Few in the Guild"
"Writers are always being called Communists. We may have a few in the Guild, just as there are Communists in all of the professions and the arts. Oddly enough, it is the employing studios who qualify all of our writers for active membership," he says.

Eric Johnston, paid spokesman for the movie industry, is the man most worried about the thing. Not only is he concerned by the frivolous and cynical way the whole question is being exploited for publicity purposes, but he sees a genuine threat of Government control of movies. He says:

"We are determined that subversive propaganda, government pressure or political censorship will never undermine freedom of the screen, which like freedom of the press and radio, is indispensable to a free America."

Hiring the distinguished name of former Secretary of State James F. Byrnes, for the movie industry is an indication of how seriously Johnston takes the red question.

THERE NEVER WAS A RIDE LIKE THIS!

No Car Designed Before the War Can Even Compete with the Ride You Get in a KAISER or a FRAZER

You be the judge! You have driven and ridden in a lot of cars. You know how they ride. Now, get in a KAISER or a FRAZER and compare the ride! You're in for a pleasant surprise. For all your present standards of riding quality will become obsolete before you have gone a mile! You will agree that no car designed before the war can even compete with the KAISER or the FRAZER—for there never was a ride like this! You drift over rough roads. You glide along the pavement. It's a horizontal ride—with the up and down travel removed.

It's not just a matter of spring design and shock absorbers. Power, brakes, and ease of steering, all play a part. So do superior roominess, extraordinary visibility and extra-low center of gravity—with all the weight of passengers between the wheels! But what's the use of telling you how it's done! You are interested in the ride. That can't be described. It must be experienced. So, before you buy any car, learn for yourself—compare the ride!

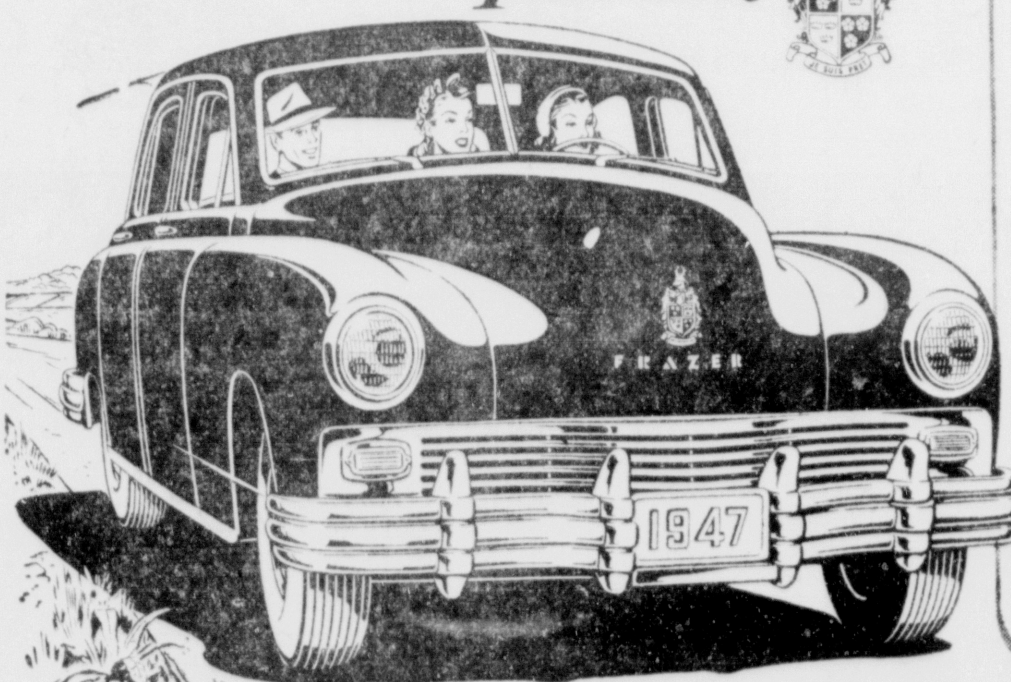

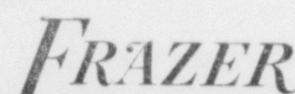

LEARN FOR YOURSELF...

Boy Who Wandered From Picnic Found Later In a Swamp

Munising — Jackie Cromell, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cromell, Munising, was lost for several hours Sunday afternoon and evening near Hartney lake, but survived the experience.

Jack was spending the day with his folks on a picnic, and during the afternoon he wandered off in a swampy area and failed to return. His parents and friends began a search, and when he was not located by 6 p. m., Sheriff Art Moote, State Police Corporal John Carstensen and Helmer Carlson, conservation officer, and 20 other Munising residents were called to make a search. Carlson found the boy about 9 p. m. in the swamp.

Gatiss - Cromell

In a double ring ceremony performed last Tuesday evening in the First Methodist church, Chief Yeoman Patricia Gatiss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gatiss, 109 Chocoley street, became the bride of Radioman William Cromell, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Cromell, Bay View Addition. The Rev. Frederick T. Steen performed the ceremony in the absence of the Rev. E. H. Soderberg.

Miss Molly Gatiss, of Highland Park, was bridesmaid and John Cromell, of this city, was best man. Both the bride and groom, members of the U. S. Navy forces, wore blue dress uniforms. The bride wore a corsage of red roses.

Miss Gatiss wore a gray suit and had a corsage of pink carnations. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Gatiss wore a green and white dress with a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Cromell wore a violet-colored dress with a corsage of gladioli.

Clifford Ebbeson sang "At Dawning" and "I Love You Truly," during the ceremony. Mrs. Gatiss accompanied him on the organ.

A reception was held at the Gatiss residence. A miniature bride and groom topped the wedding cake.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mrs. Ben Webber and son, Bruce, and daughter, Mary Lynn, from Mountain, and Mr. and Mrs. John Toebe, Lansing.

The Song Of Hiawatha Has Legends Of U.P.

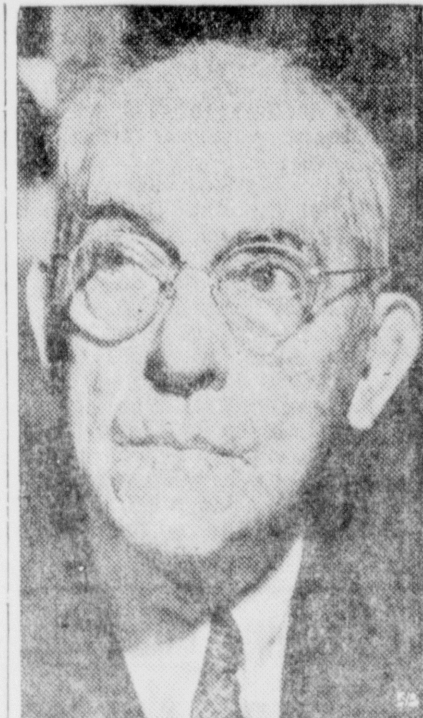

Hiawatha becomes one of Michigan's most honored citizens, familiar around the world, in a study of the Hiawatha Country and its legends by a former governor of the State and his daughter.

Chase S. Osborn of Sault Ste. Marie and Stellanova Osborn, in "The Song of Hiawatha with Its Original Indian Legends," present the epic poem with which Henry Wadsworth Longfellow caused a sensation in Boston in 1855. The original Indian legends used by Longfellow and essays on the history and early people of the Upper Peninsula form a vital part of the work.

What the Grecian peninsula and archipelago were to Homer, and what the Scandinavian region was to Northern mythology, say the Osborns, the Lake Superior country has been to "Hiawatha," the world-famous epic of the aboriginals of North America. This vision of "Hiawatha" and our own incomparable Great Lakes country is a revelation to ourselves and all the world of something that we North Americans can carry singing in our hearts through the ages.

Justice Frank Murphy of the U. S. Supreme Court declared: "This is the region whose history will be recalled July 3 to 6 in Escanaba, Michigan, at the Hiawathaland Festival sponsored by the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce. Here, in pageantry, song and speech will be celebrated under the name of its most famous personage the history of the area the Osborns eulogize for its pleasantly potable water, clean, invigorating air and its possibilities as a great modern mecca of Summer travel."

Main credit for the preservation of the legends is given by the Osborns to Henry Rowe Schoolcraft, an Indian agent whose "Algie Researches," published in 1839, helped make him known as one of the major authoritative sources of information about the American Indian.

The frontier settlement of Sault Ste. Marie, which Schoolcraft saw for the first time in 1820, the Osborns told, decided for him what his life work was to be and gave him his Indian bride. It was here that the eminent American ethnologist gained his detailed and intimate knowledge of the life and legends of the Ojibway Indians. Longfellow then created "Hiawatha," a crown of literature, from the jewels that Schoolcraft discovered on the shores of Lake Superior.

"An Accolade for Chase S. Osborn" was published and presented by the City of Sault Ste. Marie in 1940 and the governor proclaimed January 22, 1941, the anniversary of Mr. Osborn's birth in Huntington County, Indiana, in 1860, as "Chase Salmon Osborn Day." These tributes were in recognition of Mr. Osborn's generous educational and philanthropic projects on behalf of the State and for his recognized versatility as statesman, philosopher, historian, scientist and journalist.

He began newspaper work on the Lafayette, Indiana, Home Journal and later reported for the Chicago Tribune. He bought the Florence, Wisconsin, Mining News in 1883 and became editor of Miner and Manufacturer in Milwaukee in 1887. That year he bought the Saginaw Courier-Herald, which he sold in 1912.

He was postmaster at Sault Ste.

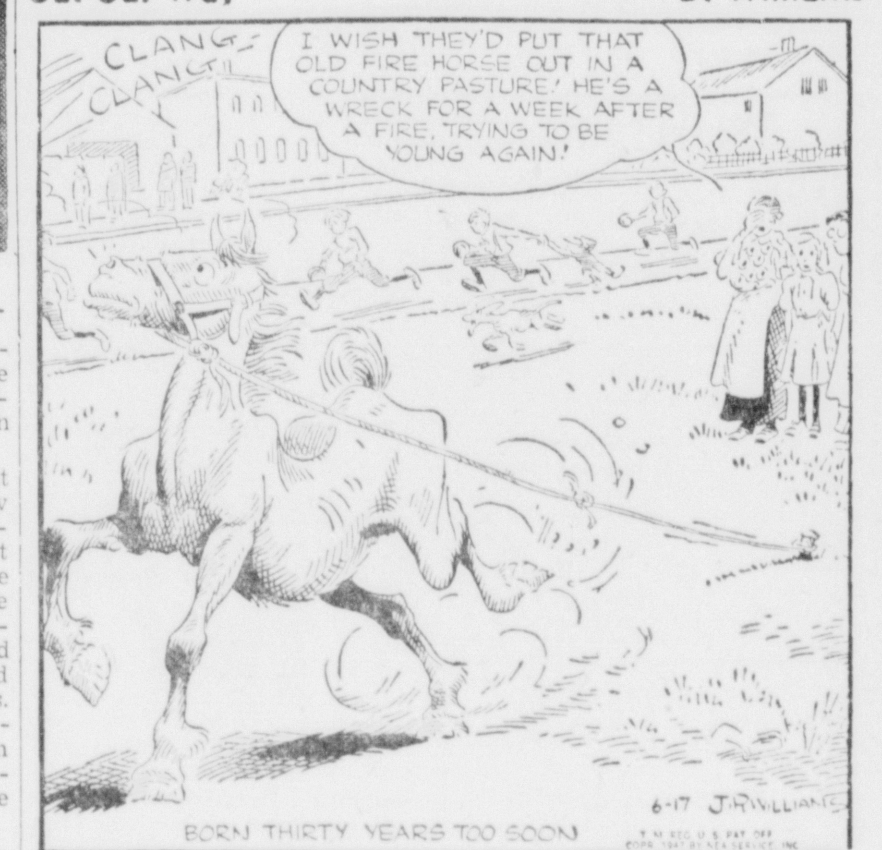

Marie from 1889-93, State game and fish warden from 1895-99, State commissioner of railroad from 1899 to 1903, regent of the University of Michigan from 1908-11, governor in 1911-12 candidate for U. S. Senator in 1918 and 1928, and endorsed by Michigan for the Republican nomination as vice-president of the United States in 1928.

Mr. Osborn summers in Poulans Georgia, with his daughter, who has collaborated with her father in writing, contributed verse and articles to various publications and been editor of the Official Publications of the University of Michigan.

MADE IN VAINSheriff And Member Of State Police Return
Without Prisoner

A trip to Mississippi for a man held there for local authorities, proved to be fruitless for local peace officers.

Sheriff Howard Hewitt and Sgt. Kenneth White returned Saturday night from a trip to Clarksdale, Miss., without the prisoner they had travelled so far to take into custody.

They had set out on Mississippi on Friday, June 6, after they had received word from the sheriff at Clarksdale that Dr. Samuel P. Hall, wanted here, had been arrested and had signed willingness to waive extradition. A warrant for Hall's arrest had been issued and the sheriff and state police officer went to bring him back and also take back the car he was accused of taking out of the state without permission of the Lundstrom Motor Company of Manistique, which had sold the car.

On his arrival the sheriff was told that the prisoner had escaped. The Clarksdale sheriff explained that Hall had asked for the service of an attorney and he, the sheriff, had taken Hall to the office of a certain attorney in that city, and had left the fugitive doctor with the lawyer with instructions that Hall be returned as soon as the conference was over. Then, according to the report, Hall asked that he be allowed to go to his hotel room before he returned to the jail. He said he wanted to get some clothes he had left there. The lawyer complied with the request and Hall went up the hotel elevator, but evidently came down some other way. At least he has not been seen since.

To add insult to injury, this same lawyer placed a lien for attorney's fees on the car in question and the car is still down in Clarksdale.

Commenting on this weird state of affairs, Sgt. White states that it was "entirely irregular for the Clarksdale sheriff to release a prisoner to his attorney." Then he added that there wasn't much that could be done about it.

It has not as yet been announced what steps will be taken to recover the car.

Beck Gives Only 2 Hits As Bears Cut Loose With Big Bats

The Escanaba Bears combined a rash of power hitting with a masterful pitching exhibition by Jack Beck Sunday to wallop Marquette, 14-1, in a Michigan Rain-bow league game at the City diamond here. In a preliminary game, two local junior league teams, Carlson's Grocery and the Fair Store, played an 11-11 tie game that was called at the end of three innings to avoid delaying the start of the feature game.

Aided by a brisk tail wind, the Bears clouted three home runs. The first was by Pitcher Beck in the second inning. Bob Anderson narrowly missed one in the third with the sacks loaded, finally settling for a two bagger when the ball caromed off the outfield tripper the next time up, however, with none on base.

Jack Schwalbach slammed a homer in the sixth with two men on bases, a screaming line drive that carried all the way to the cyclone fence, more than 400 feet from home plate and about 50 feet beyond the snow fence barrier of the playing field.

Beck was in rare pitching form and he yielded only two singles, both of them in the fourth inning, which Marquette combined with an error to score their lone run of the game, an unearned tally. Beck retired the visitors in order every other inning except the first, when Marquette got two men on the sacks due to errors after the first two batters had fanned.

Beck whiffed 14 men, striking out the side in the first, third and seventh innings.

The victory was the fourth in five games for the Bears and kept them battling for the leadership in the South division of the league. Next Sunday the Bears play the Negaunee Rovers at City diamond here.

Toledo, O., June 16 (AP)—Middleweight Contender Rocky Graziano of New York won a technical knockout over Jerry Fiorello of Brooklyn in the fifth round of a scheduled 10-rounder before an estimated 6,000 fans at Swayne field tonight.

Graziano weighed 159½; Fiorello 158½. Referee Barney Ross, former world welterweight champion, stopped the fight at 1:30 of the fifth frame.

A sharp overhand right eye Fiorello's in the second, and Graziano concentrated his barrage on the orb in succeeding rounds until Ross stopped the bout because of the flow of blood and possible serious injury to the Brooklyn fighter's eye.

Graziano, suspended by the New York State Athletic commission last winter for allegedly failing to report a bribe offer, won a previous split decision over the durable Brooklynite.

Williams Replaces DiMaggio As Tops In All-Star Tally

Chicago, June 16 (AP)—Ted Williams, the star of last year's All-Star baseball show but a disappointment in the World Series, is still a darling of the fans. In the All-Star classic last year Williams hit two home runs, two singles and drew a walk in five trips to the plate. Perhaps with this in mind, the fans baling to pick the starting line-ups for this season's contest, have installed the lanky Boston outfielder as the leading vote-getter of either league.

The latest tabulation of votes, Williams has been selected on 65,318 ballots, to replace Joe DiMaggio of New York as the individual leader. DiMaggio has received 63,104 votes.

YANKS DEFEAT WHITE SOX, 4-3

New York, June 16 (AP)—The New York Yankees defeated the Chicago White Sox 4-3 tonight scoring the winning run in the ninth inning of a perfectly executed squeeze hunt by Phil Rizzuto which enabled Joe DiMaggio to cross the plate. A crowd of 52,633 saw the Yankees stretch their American league lead to a game and a half over the idle Detroit Tigers and Boston Red Sox.

A two-run triple by Tommy Henrich, which chased two Yankees over the plate in the eighth, sent the teams into the ninth deadlocked at 3-3. Joe DiMaggio opened the ninth with a double. George McQuinn was purposefully passed. Will Johnson sacrificed, whereupon Larry Berra drew another intentional pass, setting up the squeeze. Rizzuto's untimed first went for a hit as no play could be made.

The Sox scored one run in the first against Starter Frank Shea, Dave Philley scoring all the way from first when Johnny Lindell fumbled Luke Appling's single. Bob Kennedy's triple and Cass Michael's single made it 2-0 in the sixth and Jack Wallaesa poled his fifth home run with the bases empty in the eighth.

Joe Haynes held the Yankees scoreless until the seventh when singles by Henrich and Lindell and DiMaggio's force out gave them their first tally. Earl Caldwell replaced Haynes after Henrich's triple and was charged with the defeat. Lefty Joe Page, who relieved Shea in the ninth was the winner.

Death Claims Mrs. Ada M. Freeze Here On Monday Evening

Mrs. Ada M. Freeze, 70, died at 11:40 o'clock on Monday evening at the home of her brother, H. L. Holderman, 916 S. Seventh avenue. Mrs. Freeze had been ill for about two weeks.

She was born on March 11, 1867, at Kosciusko, Ind., and was a retired milliner. She had made her home in Escanaba for the past two years.

Surviving are two sisters and two brothers, Mrs. R. E. Little, Villa Park, Ill., Mrs. Wm. H. Howe of Hammond, Ind., H. L. Holderman, Escanaba; M. D. Holderman, Azusa, Calif. There is also one step-son, Earl Freeze of Los Angeles, Calif.

The body was taken to the Anderson funeral home to be prepared for burial and will be shipped this evening to Kosciusko for burial.

Brilliant Student Gives The Slip To Detroit Policemen

Detroit, June 16. (P)—An 18-year-old high school youth described by his parents as "so brilliant we haven't been able to figure him out" escaped today from the recorder's court building, where he was awaiting trial on auto theft charges.

LT. Albert Hartsig said the fugitive, Warren Boltz, complained of feeling nauseated and was taken to a third floor lavatory by Patrolman Patrick Sheerin, who waited outside.

When Sheerin became impatient, he entered the lavatory to find Boltz gone.

Boltz, who was arrested last April after a wild four-mile auto chase punctuated by gunfire from pursuing police, stood mute May 30 before Recorder's Judge Joseph A. Gillis and an innocent plea was entered for him.

Held under $5,000 bond, Boltz was referred to the psychiatric clinic, and was awaiting examination at the time of the break.

Hartsig said federal authorities were prepared to charge Boltz with theft of several government checks and money orders, after disposal of the auto theft charges.

The boy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley A. Boltz, expressed bewilderment at the actions of their son, an all "A" student, and said he had received psychiatric treatment earlier.

SLASHES NOW CALLED RISKY BY PRESIDENT

nesses contended in hearings.

3. The purchasing power of consumers should be increased by ironing out "the disparity" between prices and wages through "wise policies and improved practices of business and labor"; cutting taxes "is not the proper way" to do it. Retailers particularly had urged lower taxes to boost purchasing power.

Inflation Feared

It was in this phase of his veto message to the House that Mr. Truman made his only reference to the future of tax reduction: "The time for tax reduction will come when general inflationary pressures have ceased and the structure of prices is on a more stable basis than now prevails. How long it will take for this point to be reached is impossible to predict."

Republicans, fully expecting the veto, charged that the administration wanted to put it off until the 1948 campaign year for political purposes.

In declaring that "sound fiscal policy x x x requires that existing tax rates be maintained for the present," Mr. Truman mentioned "heavy obligations growing out of the war" still to be met, and the nation's "great responsibilities for international relief and rehabilitation."

General Revision Favored

His argument that the bill would benefit the big taxpayers more than those "in the low income brackets" was this: "Under H.R. 1, tax savings to the average family with an income of $2,500 would be less than $30, while taxes on an income of $50,000 would be reduced by nearly $5,000, and on an income of $500,000 by nearly $60,000.

"Insofar as 'take-home' pay is concerned under H.R. 1, the family earning $2,500 would receive an increase of only 1.2 percent; the family with an income of $50,000 would receive an increase of 18.6 percent; and the family with an income of $500,000 would receive an increase of 63.3 percent."

The president concluded with a proposal that "a thoroughgoing revision of the tax system" be planned. On personal income taxes, he suggested planning not only for changing the rate of taxes but the amount of exemp-

Ghost Of Paganini Heard In Genoa By Makers Of Movie

Genoa, Italy, June 16 (P)—A number of serious believers swore before a notary public that the voice of Nicolo Paganini, the man known as the world's greatest violinist, who died in 1840, spoke out today during the making of a moving picture concerning his life.

In Genoa's Ducal hall, where Paganini played more than a century ago, the Italian violinist Renato De Barbieri, using Paganini's own Guarneri violin, played "Le Streghe," when the hall echoed with a voice crying: "Sono Paganini. Sono Paganini. (I am Paganini. I am Paganini.)"

In confusion, De Barbieri and the movie sound men stopped, but the violinist started over. He played the Sonata through to the end and as the last note died away the ghostly voice again sounded.

"Bravo. Bravo. Ah, le mie mie streghe. (Ah, my witches, my witches.)"

All persons connected with the making of the movie and all guests in the hall were absolved of suspicion of creating a hoax and a search of the hall failed to reveal anyone else who could have been responsible. Technicians anxiously began work on the sound track to determine if the voice was recorded.

Paper Mill Waste Is Good For Soil

Madison, Wis., (SS)—Farmers in northern Wisconsin have found that a paper mill waste—the greenish, ill-smelling sludge dumped by the mills after pulp is processed for paper—is rich in lime and just the thing for acid soils.

The mills are gladly cooperating with the farmers in making the sludge available to them, because getting rid of the waste has always been a serious problem. County agricultural agents, too, are cooperating by making available testing facilities to determine whether soils need lime.

tions and other factors. And he said "we should also consider changes in excise tax laws, gift and estate taxes, (and) corporation taxes," without specifying whether he thinks these should be higher or lower.

Apply For License—Applications for marriage licenses have been made at the office of the county clerk by Rune A. Ostlund and Ruth D. Gustafson of Gladstone Rt. 1; Roy Nelson of Cornell and Fay Franklin of Rapid River; John Patrick Rogers and Betty Marie King of Escanaba; Irving R. ### Long Illness Takes Mrs. Satterstrom, Ford River Pioneer

Mrs. Anna Satterstrom, 77, resident of West Ford River for 54 years, died at 8:40 p. m. Monday at her home after an illness of a year. ### WALLACE HAS FORMULA FOR WORLD PEACE

the conference is linked with Communists.

In his speech, Wallace expressed hope that government workers in the audience would not be "purged" because of their presence.

Markets Needed

Leading up to his proposal for a Berlin conference between American and Soviet leaders, Wallace said American hopes for a strong United Nations rest on "our ability to make peace with the Soviet Union." He suggested that Secretary of State Marshall and Foreign Minister Molotov sit in at the conference.

Asserting the Russians must have peace and desire peace, he said the Berlin conference should be called "for the avowed and announced purpose of drawing up an agreement which will cover all the points at issue between United States and the Soviet Union."
